JIM RATTS, UNCLE KIT SIMON JOIN JON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15 — 7:30 P.M.

Arvada, CO. November 10 – The Olde Town Pickin' Parlor continues the eighth season of America's Soul Live! an acoustic concert series, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 15, with host Jon Chandler welcoming Colorado music legend Jim Ratts, and the Pickin' Parlor's own Kit Simon.

Jim Ratts defines the term "acoustic music" in Colorado. Despite being one of the country's best recording engineers (at his Raven Studios), his band Runaway Express is in demand for its unique combination of original and classic rock and folk performances. A founder of the legendary Texas/Colorado band Colours, and member of the exceptionally cool Wild Jimbos along with Jimmy Ibbotson and Jim Salestrom, Jim has put his mark on Colorado music.

America's Soul Live! gives listeners an Austin City Limits-type experience with award-winning singer/songwriter/author Jon Chandler welcoming contemporaries to the stage each month. Chandler and his guests are joined by string wizard Ernie Martinez, Denver's fiddler of choice Johnny Neill, and fine bassist/sound dude Jeff Graves.

Okay...if you own one of the country's finest guitar shops, you'd better be able to play the thing, right? In Kit Simon's case, the answer is a resounding yes. As the proprietor of the Olde Town Pickin' Parlor, Kit is known nationally and internationally as a savvy guitar guy, and his playing shows it. A fantastic western swing player, his vocals are equally effective. He'll have a few surprises in store, and his golden lab, Toby Wan Kenobe, just may join him on stage. He's a picker extraordinaire, all right, and it's great to have him on stage.
